

Sichuan City-gas Joint Ventures Unaffected by Sichuan Earthquake

(22 Apr 2013) A 7.0 (Richter scale) magnitude earthquake hit the Ya'an city, Sichuan province (四川雅安市) in China on 20 April 2013 at around 8:02 a.m. The Towngas group express deep sympathy to the affected people. Our twenty joint ventures in the province started emergency measures and carried out safety inspection. Our workforces are in safe condition. There were no damages to the gas pipeline networks and facilities. We keep on providing our customer with a safe, reliable supply of gas without any interruption.
